NO MORE THAN SIX (6) CREDITS of outside work will be accepted for transfer to meet Law School graduation requirements. An outside course will appear on the Law School's internal records as a "Non-Law Elective". Upon successful completion of the course (grade of at least a "B"), a grade of "S" (Satisfactory) will be entered on the Law School record. The actual name of the course and the letter grade for that course will not factor into your final average. Should a student fail to attain a minimum grade of "B", a grade of "U" (Unsatisfactory) will be entered for that course on the Law School record. However, the course name and letter grade will appear on your University Transcript.

I have already completed _____ non-law elective credits.
