

Center for International Legal Education Study/Internship Abroad Fellowship

To encourage JD students to engage in international study, the Center for International Legal Education is offering fellowships for students pursuing study, research or internships abroad. Each fellowship will be in an amount from $500.00 to $1,500.00, depending upon need, merit and the number of students selected for funding.

To apply for a fellowship, please submit:

- 1.) CILE Fellowship application form (available in 318 Law School)
- 2.) Recent transcript
- 3.) Resume
- 4.) Outline of financial need & proposed costs (1 page)
- 5.) Statement of Proposed Activity (2 - 3 pages)

The deadline will be in March. Please check with CILE for the specific date.

All materials should be delivered to the CILE Office in Room 318 of the Law School.
