ADVOCACY AND SERVICE:

- February – May 2023: I worked with Lewis Grossman, Patti Zettler, and a team of lawyers at Covington & Burling, LLP to draft an amicus brief, signed by FDA law scholars, opposing plaintiffs in the Alliance for Hippocratic Medicine v. FDA case. There, plaintiffs are attempting to stay the approval of mifepristone (the first drug in the medication abortion regimen) nationwide. We also filed an amicus brief before the Supreme Court and the Fifth Circuit in the same case.
- March 2023: I worked with a team of health law scholars and lawyers from Covington & Burling, LLP to draft an amicus brief in support of the plaintiffs in GenBioPro v. Sorsaia. There, plaintiffs are seeking a court order that the FDA’s regulation of mifepristone preempts state abortion bans.
- 2022-2023: David Cohen, Rachel Rebouché, and I worked with legislators in Connecticut to draft the first law in the country that would shield abortion providers from extraterritorial lawsuits related to abortion. We submitted written testimony in support of the law, and Cohen testified orally. This law has now been replicated and passed in many other states and formed the basis of many executive orders. I also helped draft the first city shield law in Pittsburgh and testified on its behalf before city council. This law is now being passed both other cities in Pennsylvania.
- October 4, 2022: I was one of two primary drafters of a citizen petition on behalf of nearly fifty medical and advocacy organizations to the Food & Drug Administration that asked the agency to work with the mifepristone drug sponsor to add miscarriage management to the drug’s label, to remove the Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategy (REMS), and to use its enforcement discretion to not enforce the REMS for that indication.
- October 11, 2022: David Cohen, Rachel Rebouché, and I submitted a comment to the Department of Veterans Affairs in response to its Interim Final Rule covering abortion care in the context of rape, incest, life, and health, even in states that ban abortion, supporting its position that the Interim Rule preempts state abortion bans with narrower exceptions and regardless, the intergovernmental immunity doctrine prohibits the state from regulating federal workers.
- February 25, 2021: I organized a conference with Mary Crossley, Abortion Rights at a Crossroads, with leading abortion rights and reproductive justice scholars.
